

IRELAND RULES THE WORLD!

In this year's England v Ireland v The Rest of the World match, the favourites, Ireland, took the competition at a stroll. The Ireland team boasted strength in depth as family trees were dusted off as evidence for players' eligibility to pull on the emerald green sweater. Calls from the losing players for a prize for the best Plastic Paddy went unheeded - sour grapes, some would say. We've all got a bit of Irish in us, others would say.

More than ever our club, like London itself, offers a kaleidoscope of nationalities.

The Rest of the World fielded representatives from Scotland, Wales, New Zealand, Zimbabwe, South Africa, Bermuda, Jamaica, Italy, Greece, Sri Lanka and, of course, the United States.

The England team struggled to fill their quota of players, leaving captain Paul Shanahan (surely he could've been in the Ireland team?) to grumble, "we're a minority in our own country". It was little wonder then that Ireland came through the victors, with 572 points, followed by England on 526 and RoW with 507.

TROUSER SOCK TUCKING: IS IT OK?

October brought the first heavy showers of the Autumn and it signaled a traditional change of attire amongst Brent Valley's golfers. A last rummage of our shorts' pockets for stray markers and tee pegs before going into the summer draw, and in their place... the (perhaps slightly too) long trousers. Still a couple of months yet before the leg-ins, but the heavy rains and accompanying mud bring a vexed question: should I tuck my trousers in my socks? Various courses, including our westerly neighbours, will tut-tut and possibly refuse to take a green fee. Brent Valley has no such compunctions, thank goodness.

But does it make us look like a farmer going to feed the cows? We leave our readers to make up their own minds based on the picture to the left (thanks to Richard Gray).

NEW INFO PACK FOR NEW MEMBERS

Jane Charlwood has prepared a 2-part members pack that will soon be distributed to prospective and new members. The first part will provide essential information to those people considering joining and the second part will be aimed at new members, providing them with information about competitions, course rules and etiquette.

ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

The Brent Valley annual dinner dance, which is usually held at the beginning of the year, will be held later in the year, to coincide with the change in the timing of the handover of captaincies this year.

CORRECTION

In the last newsletter we incorrectly stated that Larry Weill won the 2010 Poker final. This was incorrect. The winner was in fact Alan Niel. The Newsletter apologises unreservedly for its error and offers its belated congratulations to Alan (pictured left during the final - we're glad to say he saw the funny side of it).

VAT INCREASE

Following the government's increase in VAT from 17.5% to 20% from January 1 this year, prices in the club bar will regrettably also increase. Most drink prices will rise by around 10p.

MO-VEMBER AT BRENT VALLEY

Mo-vement arrived at Brent Valley last November. A charity campaign to raise funds for research into men's health issues (most notably prostate cancer), participants grow moustaches for the duration of the month. Various Brent Valley members (just the men members) took part in this year's campaign raising over £400 for the charity. Tom Murray, who organised the event, was in the strange position of having to shave his usual moustache off before starting the month. The ceremonial shaving was effected by President MJ Murphy and Frankie Burke. A practiced moustache grower, Tom had produced a thick brush before the first week was even out, while others struggled to produce anything worthy of the name. The month culminated in the award for the finest moustache, which went to Steve Cannon, for a quite magnificent Hound of the Baskerville's affair. Rick Harvey's Mexican-inspired moustache gave him an even greater air of a bandit than normal and came a close second.

Moustache of the month: Steve Cannon with a magnificent House of the Baskervilles affair

Top: Tom Murray goes under the knife, assisted by Captain, Dave Flynn, Mick Hynes and President, Mj Murphy. Middle right: Richard Gray's hairy lip

Rick Harvey sporting the classic Mexican-bandit moustache and the very rarely seen-1986 Luton Town third strip

THE CURIOUS TALE OF THE STATUE, THE ARTIST AND BRENT VALLEY

What's the link between Peter Adams (our recently-joined member from Horsenden Hill), the 15th tee at Brent Valley, the Chiswick High Road and the famous painter Hogarth? Give up? The answer is long and complicated, so pay attention.

There is a statue of the famous 19th century Chiswick-based painter William Hogarth on the Chiswick High Road (pictured below with Peter), not far from Turnham Green tube. A local of Chiswick (his house is very near the aptly-named Hogarth roundabout), Hogarth painted bawdy scenes of London life in the 18th century - though no paintings of golf unfortunately. The statue was created by a sculptor called Jim Mathieson in 2000.

There are two links between the statue and Brent Valley golf course. The first is that Mathieson used a studio located behind the 15th tee and 16th green on Brent Valley (see picture top right).

The second is that Peter Adams modeled for the statue of Hogarth. Peter says that one day back in 1997 he was walking across the golf course when he was accosted by the sculptor who was struck by Peter's likeness to the famous painter Hogarth. There and then the sculptor asked Peter if he would model for him, offering £50 per hour. Although slightly wary of being propositioned in this way by a complete stranger on the golf course, Peter agreed and went to the first of five modeling sessions for the sculpture of Hogarth. The sculptor had quite a taste for Tennants Super and part of the modeling deal for Peter was free beer throughout the sessions. Mathieson was mainly interested in Peter's legs and arms and although they have bulked out a bit since then, he can still see a likeness in the legs of the statue on Chiswick High Road. Since then Peter's modeling career has been a bit quiet, though he is open to offers.

The sculptor at work: Jim Mathieson inside the studio where much Tennants Super was consumed

NAME-THAT-BRENT-VALLEY-
MEMBER-IN-THEIR-YOUNGER DAYS!

No. 4

Our volunteer in this newsletter believes this photo of himself to be one of the easier so far in the series. So we will keep the clues to a minimum. The photo is presented in a very fetching glass and brass case of the type that was very fashionable in the 1920s. So, if the lad were, say, 10 in 1929, that would make him, what, 92 today. So that rules out about 50% of the membership. The photo is sepia, which could place it somewhat earlier, possibly in the 1890s. These cases often included a lock of the young subject's hair: but does he have any of that same hair left today? The photographer's instruction to this young lad was probably "look up here, boy, at this interesting thing to my right" as he clicked his fingers trying to distract his gaze to the right of the camera to produce a natural pose. These days his gaze might more often be distracted by his ball flying off the first tee high to the right. As usual, a free lifetime Newsletter subscription goes to the successful identifier of this Brent Valley member in his younger days.

In 1942....

And the answer to the last newsletter's WITBVMITYD competition is... of course... our very own social secretary, Steve Cannon. (The clue about being sociable in the playground gave it away really). Yes, we told you it was easier than the previous two, and a lot of people guessed right. The hair has gone, but the same unmistakable smile has lasted Steve a life-time.

... in 2010

SENIORS

Wadsworth Cup Competition (14/9/10)

This is a one-off annual seniors competition between five clubs – Abbeymoor, Brent Valley, Hazlewood, Horton Park & Thames Ditton & Esher and was started in 2003 by Malcolm Wadsworth as a way of getting local clubs and their players to get to know one another whilst competing for the Wadsworth Cup.

This year's hosts were Thames Ditton and Esher Golf Club, located down a slip road off the Scilly Isles on the A309 and difficult to find unless you've played there before (as a number of us found out)!

Esher Golf Club: difficult to find and like playing on the moon.

The TD&E GC is a nine-hole course with the first nine being played off yellow tees and the second nine off red tees. And what a course – fairways like the surface of the moon and rough that has never seen the likes of a lawnmower! Miss the fairway and 1 out of 9 balls are never seen again. Plus, two major roads running through the course had to be navigated and crossed time and time again to reach the various tees.

It was against this backdrop that four teams of two from each club set off on a shotgun start to play a four ball, better ball Stableford competition.

Needless to say, we were all outclassed by our hosts who scored a total of 137 points. Second, Horton Park with 123; Abbeymoor third with 122; Hazlewood 115; and BVGC 107 points.

BVGC teams comprised Ron Dyer/Alan Niel; Rick Harvey/Kathy Maloney; Richard Roberts/Keith Hall and Pat Rodrigues/Andy Lambe. The presence of Kathy in the BVGC team caused something of a stir – she was the first lady ever to participate and there are no ladies tees on the course! The organisers compromised with a meagre plus four on Kathy's handicap. Shame!

Finally, as matter of record, Keith checked the distance counter on his trolley on return to the clubhouse where it was found to be registering 9,200 yards!

Match v West Middlesex Seniors (22/9/10)

Having lost our away game earlier in the year against West Middlesex 5 games to 1 there was an air of apprehension in the clubhouse before the start of the return home game. The weather was forecast to be the hottest and last of its kind this year, so no excuses as far as that was concerned. Final score: a win to BVGC Seniors – 3 games won, 2 lost and one halved. Particular congratulations go to Pat Rodrigues and Andy Lambe who, in temperatures of 25°C plus, finished 1-up against a pair of very strong opponents. Well done all!

Airlinks Seniors Open (30/9/10)

This was the day for the so-called Airlinks Seniors Open when on previous occasions, some 80-odd players from a variety of local clubs participated. Only half the previous number of players turned up for this year's event which comprised largely those from Airlinks itself and the rest Brent Valley Seniors!

There have always been rumblings about the handicaps of players from other clubs and Airlinks was no exception. However, despite the home team winning all the prizes, a great day was had by all in perfect weather conditions.

Away Day, Wexham Park (6/10/10)

Past away days at Wexham always seem to have taken place under extreme conditions of heavy rain over a very sodden course. The 31 of us turning up on the day (two didn't trouble to get out of bed!) really thought the day was going to be the same thing all over again.

We teed off in soaking rain, the course was soaked and so were we. Then to everyone's amazement the clouds dispersed the sun came out, a fair wind dried a lot of the course and the rest of the day was absolutely superb!

As is usual for these seniors away days, prizes were in abundance with Rick Harvey winning the competition overall with 38 points, Richard Roberts second with 37 points and Ken Elstone third with 36 points. Ladies' winner was Carol Manners with 30 points. Other prizes were awarded for 3rd to 8th in the main competition, 1st and 2nd in the 70+ age group, 1st and 2nd prizes for guests and the usual nearest the pin(s) and longest drive. In the true tradition of BVGC seniors' away days, all competitors received consolation prizes of various items of golfing paraphernalia, chocolates and biscuits.

A great day for all of us and well done the winners!

Seniors Away Day at Wexham Park

BVGC Seniors vs Air Links Seniors

This friendly annual competition was started in 2004 when Brent Valley Seniors won that year, followed by a win by our opponents in 2005 and back to Brent Valley Seniors in 2006. Air Links won again in 2007 & 2008 but lost again in 2009.

The first of this year's matches away at Air Links, took place on Thursday 21st October – a cold and frosty morning with enormous difficulty initially, at least, finding balls on the fairway (even worse in the rough) and putting on the greens. Much to our surprise, however, the sun came out early on and we finished the day in brilliant sunshine. Playing a full handicap, Stableford competition, BVGC came in with an aggregate score of 349 points against Air Links' 326. Regretfully, one Air Links player had walked off before scoring any points or completing his round which meant that our 'win' was somewhat 'hollow'.

The return match took place at Brent Valley on Wednesday 27th October with an Air Links team very much determined to make up the difference from their away loss the previous week. In the event, Brent Valley Seniors not only held their position but increased their lead by a further 21 points scoring 373 to Airlinks 352! The challenge cup remains with Brent Valley Seniors for yet another year! Congratulations to all those seniors who participated!

A Magical Evening

Friday 26th November, the day for BVGC Seniors awards dinner was held at Ealing Golf Club on a cold wintry evening and what a magical evening it turned out to be. With a total of 72 paying guests this was truly a record attendance. Any concerns about the ability of the venue to cope with such high numbers were soon forgotten as Members and their guests sat down to beautifully arranged tables sporting white and green table cloths, vases of white roses, specially prepared BVGC themed menus and individual gifts for all. Outgoing seniors' captain, Keith Hall, during his inauguration 12 months previously, promised to try to bring a touch of magic to the club and on this evening, that is precisely what he did.

Whilst taking it in turns to queue for the carvery, waiting guests were entertained by Keith's friend Russell Levinson, magician extraordinaire who produced and disappeared various objects before their very eyes much to everyone's amazement! Discussions around 'how did he do it?' continued throughout the evening and were still the topic of conversation two days later at Sunday's club meeting! By all accounts everyone had a very enjoyable evening - brilliant organisation, good food, high spirits all round! Before introducing Alan Niel as next year's captain Keith undertook the role of outgoing seniors' captain by presenting awards to 2010 winners of the Medal (Van de Velde Trophy - Matty Carthy); Stableford (Seniors Challenge Cup), Bogy (Denis Burke Cup) and the Order of Merit - all won by Billy Kearney. Well done both players!

Seniors captain, Keith Hall, loads Billy Kearney with various trophies, including the 2010 Order of Merit.

Annual seniors dinner at Ealing Golf Club: a magical evening!

expressprint
Established 1982

020 8567 8727
www.expressprint.co.uk

- Short/Long Run Printing
- Copying & Digital Print
 - Brand Identity
- Brochures & Leaflets

160 Broadway, West Ealing, London W13 0TL
sales@expressprint.co.uk

DESIGN & PRINT SOLUTIONS

Same Day Service Available
Fixed Price Print Deals

BRENT VALLEY ON FACEBOOK

We joined Wikipedia last year, now Brent Valley Golf Club has its own Facebook group page! If Brent Valley gets much more with the times, we will have to take out insurance! The group currently has 11 members though this figure will no doubt increase as

For those of our older members who are not yet familiar with Facebook, it's a website where members can put up news, photos, announcements, job offers, funny stories, etc. for other group members. It's all the rage at the moment. To become a member, simply go to the facebook website and sign up. It's absolutely free. If you're already on Facebook, why not join the group?

Facts about Facebook

- Facebook has over 350 million active users
- Many golf clubs have Facebook pages, including The Belfry, West Middlesex and Ealing.
- 2.5 billion pictures are uploaded to Facebook each month
- The average Facebook user spends more than 55 minutes per day on the site.
- The 25-year old founder of Facebook, Mark Zuckerberg, is the world's youngest billionaire.

Quizmaster Tom Murray at a recent quiz evening. Tom is one of the new Brent Valley Facebook page's most active contributors.

BRENTSIDE GOLF SOCIETY

The Brentside's September outing included the annual showdown against Brent Valley's other resident society, The Phoenix, for the Alan Moore Trophy. After a depressing run of 6 successive defeats since the event was revived in 2004, the Brentside finally produced a victory by a comfortable margin of 19 points.

The 2010 Order of Merit was clinched by John Antunes when he won the November competition, pipping Matty Carthy by one point and Jamie Lea by two.

Winner of the Brentside 2010 Order of Merit, John Antunes, enjoys a celebratory fag

In the long grass: Mick Hynes fires out of the rough on the 6th during the Brentside scramble. Below: New Brentside captain presents the highly coveted Blue Nun trophy to Tom Murray.

The final of the Society Doubles competition was also played in December, with victory on the 18th hole for Joe Horvath and Steve Cannon over Martin Brennan and Brian Lennox.

The Christmas scramble fell victim to the snow once again, but was rescheduled for January 2, when the gods smiled down and blessed the Brentside with excellent weather, as the stir-crazy golfers of the Brentside and Brent Valley took to the fairways with New Year's zeal.

And in the first outing of 2011, the new captain, Peter Hyde, presented the highly prized Blue Nun trophy to Tom Murray for generally outstanding achievements during the year (pictured right), amongst which were two marathons and the Mo-venber campaign.

Brentside Outing Results

September: 1. Noel Rutherford; 2. Kevin Keenan; 3. John Antunes

October: 1. Steve Cannon; 2. MJ Murphy; 3. Dave Flynn; Guest winner: Scott Lea

November: 1. John Antunes; 2. Graeme Tollitt; 3. Jamie Lea; Guest winner: Mike Davis.

THE PHOENIX GOLF SOCIETY

The results from the last three Phoenix outings are:

October: 1st Joe Horvath; 2nd Calum Weill; 3rd Geoff Quantock; Ladies: Helen Weill

November: 1st Tom Murray; 2nd Noel Rutherford; 3rd Jamie Lea; Ladies: Kathy Maloney

December: 1st James Craven; 2nd Steve Cannon; 3rd Frank Burke; Ladies: Kathy Maloney

Winner of the 2010 Phoenix Order of Merit was Joe Horvath.

Many thanks to our outgoing Captain Jack Farrugia (pictured right), who has done a great job for the last 2 years. Welcome and good luck for the next 2 years to our incoming Captain, Larry Weill. The annual Phoenix away day has been set for June 11.

Everything you wanted to ask about the rules of golf but were too afraid to ask...

PLAYING OUT OF TURN

What happens if my ball is nearer the hole than another player's and I play it before him?

While there is a set order of playing balls, there is no penalty for playing out of turn.

What about if I'm playing in a competition with a friend and he is doing quite well and I'm not and although his ball is further from the hole, we decide that I will play first in order to give him an idea of how the ball lands on the green. Is that OK?

Most certainly not. If the committee decides you've agreed to play out of turn to give one of you an advantage, you're both DISQUALIFIED!

Yikes! But speaking of what order you're supposed to play in, do handicaps get taken into account when you're deciding who has the honour?

No, the gross scores from the previous hole are used (not handicap-adjusted ones) for the determination of the honour.

And is there a penalty if you get this wrong? No, as with the order of play during the playing of a hole, there's no penalty.

What about if you're helping your mate again by going first when you don't have the honour?

Again, if the committee gets wind of it, you're both disqualified!

GREAT GOLFING QUOTES

- Golf is a game in which a ball one and a half inches in diameter is placed on a ball 8,000 miles in diameter. The object is to hit the small ball but not the larger (John Cunningham).
- Golf is a game in which you yell "Fore!", shoot six and write down five (Paul Harvey).
- I'd give up golf if I didn't have so many sweaters (Bob Hope)

BRENT VALLEY 2010 COMPETITION WINNERS

Competition	Men	Competition	Ladies
St David's	Joe Horvath	St David's	Jayne Charlwood
St Patrick's	Noel Rutherford	St Patrick's	Helen Weill
St George's	Martin Brennan	St George's	Veronica Collins
St Andrew's	Joe Machado	St Andrew's	Veronica Collins
Captain's	Geoff Raynor	Captain's	Kathy Maloney
President's	Mick Hynes	President's	Helen Weill
Order of Merit	Joe Horvath	Order of Merit	Helen Weill
Club Championship	Phillip Christides	Club Championship	Kathy Maloney
Pat McGlew	Mike Cameron	Spring Cup	Annette Dillon
Brent Cup	Jamie Lea	Midsummer Salver	Teresa Machado
Cremin	Jamie Lea	Burchmore Cup	Helen Weill
Seniors	Ray Black	Letts Bowl	Margaret Griffin
Foxes	John Antunes	Winter Cup	Helen Weill
Teddies	Richard Roberts	Autumn Cup	Annette Dillon
Rabbits	Keith Hall	Birdie Tree	Helen Weill
Winter Singles	Joe Hovarth
Summer Singles	Mick Hynes
Winter Four Ball	Ken Curtis/Frankie Burke
Summer Four Ball	Jamie Lea/Mick Hynes
Jimmy Cup	Matty Carthy
Bill Birmingham	M. Carthy/Rick Harvey
Summer Greensomes	John McFall/M. Halferty
Winter Greensomes	Dave Flynn/Tom Murray

Jamie Lea (right) was the star of the annual prize-giving, scooping the men's Order of Merit trophy, along with a number of other prizes. He also achieved the quite amazing feat of winning both the Cremin and the Brent Cup for the second year running. Quite a testament to the consistency and excellence of Jamie's golf in all seasons and in all weathers!

COOL GOLFERS OF THE WORLD

NO. 5: BARACK OBAMA

Obama had a particularly busy golfing schedule earlier this year. Between early April and the end of May, he played eight out of nine weekends. In May, the Icelandic volcano forced Obama to cancel a trip to meet the Polish president. What a shame. Oh well, golf anyone? Woohoo! And off Obama went to his course of choice, the Andrews Air Force Base for 18 holes.

A left-handed player, Obama may feel that he needs to put in the practice to end his Presidency a better golfer than George W. At the moment, his handicap of 16 is one stroke higher than Bush's.

George W Bush had a reputation for playing more golf than running his affairs of state, but his successor Barack Obama has already played more rounds of golf than Bush did during his entire term of office. As of October last year, he had played 52 rounds of golf since taking office. And then there's time spent on the White House putting green (very handy having it right there outside your office). Bush played only 24 times. But neither came close to Dwight Eisenhower, who played more than 1,000 rounds during his eight years as President.

In his defence, Brent Valley members will point out that a round of golf is sometimes precisely what is needed when a big decision has to be made. Barack may be pondering whether to invade Iran, while we may be thinking: a kebab or beans on toast for tea tonight? Business can be discussed with partners and complex problems resolved. Your brain can still be working, while your arms and legs are playing golf.

Above: Obama and his Vice-President, Joe Biden, on the White House putting green. Below-left: Obama putting again, this time inside the White House

One of Obama's frequent playing partners is the Vice-President, Joe Biden. Apparently they play for a dollar a hole. But isn't the Vice-President supposed to holding the fort while the President is busy with other things, for example, playing a round of golf, you might ask. We need have no such fears. Whenever, the President and the Vice-President sneak out of the White House for a quick 9, or more often 18, holes, they are accompanied by a caravan of golf carts carrying a military aide (carrying the nuclear code), a Secret Service representative and a doctor.

In the next edition of "Cool Golfers of the World": Bobby Charlton.

COMPETITION RESULTS

MENS

CREMIN 1 • 17/10/10

		Points
1st	Jamie Lea	40
2nd	Scott Lea	39
3rd	Steve Cannon	37
4th	Joe Horvath	37
5th	David Flynn	36

LADIES

WINTER CUP 1 • 3/10/10

		Points
1st	Helen Weill	33
2nd	Veronica Collins	31
3rd	Annette Dillon	31
4th	Mary Curtis	26
5th	Teresa Brennan	24

CREMIN 2 • 14/11/10

		Points
1st	Jamie Lea	42
2nd	Mike Davis	41
3rd	John Antunes	40
4th	Graeme Tollitt	40
5th	Phillip Christides	38

LETTS BOWL • 31/10/10

		Net score
1st	Kathy Maloney	77
2nd	Margery Griffin	78
3rd	Teresa Machado	79
4th	Veronica Collins	80
5th	Barbara Murphy	81

CREMIN 3 • 12/12/10

		Points
1st	Larry Weill	40
2nd	Joe Horvath	40
3rd	Michael J Murphy	39
4th	Richard Gray	37
5th	Sean Diggins	37

WINTER CUP 2 • 7/11/10

		Points
1st	Veronica Collins	33
2nd	Kathy Maloney	32
3rd	Annette Dillon	27
4th	Teresa Machado	27
5th	Teresa Brennan	25

BURCHMORE CUP 2 • 14/11/10

		Score
1st	Helen Weill	72
2nd	Kathy Maloney	80
3rd	Veronica Collins	80
4th	Jayne Charlwood	82
5th	Annette Dillon	84

Left: Helen Weill, with her trademark "windmill" swing, winner of the Ladies Winter Cup 1 and the Burchmore Cup.

Events Calendar

January	February	March	April
Wed 5: Seniors Medal	Wed 2: Seniors medal	Wed 2: Seniors Medal	Sat 2: Brent Cup 1, Summer Singles Qualifier
Sat 8: Ladies Winter Cup	Sat 5: Ladies Winter Cup	Sat 5: Cremin 6, Ladies Winter Cup	Sun 3: Brent Cup 1, Ladies MM, Summer Singles Qualifier, Phoenix
Sun 9: Ladies Winter Cup	Sun 6: Ladies Winter Cup	Sun 6: Cremin 6, Ladies Winter Cup, Phoenix	Wed 6: Seniors Stableford
Wed 12: Seniors Stableford	Wed 9: Seniors stableford	Wed 9: Seniors stableford	Sun 10: St George's Competition
Sat 15: Cremin 4, Ladies Stableford	Sat 12: Cremin 5, Annual Dinner Dance	Sat 12: Mens Greensomes, Ladies Winter Cup	Wed 13: Seniors stableford
Sun 16: Cremin 4, Ladies Stableford, Brentside	Sun 13: Cremin 5, L Valentine Cup	Sun 13: Mens Greensomes, Ladies Winter Cup	Sat 16: Summer 4 Ball Qualifier, Ladies Stableford
Wed 19: Seniors Bogey	Wed 16: Seniors bogey	Thurs 17: St Patricks Day	Sun 17: Summer 4 Ball qualifier, Ladies Stableford, Brentside
Fri 21: Poker	Fri 18: Poker	Fri 18: Poker	Wed 20: Seniors Bogey
Sun 23: Phoenix New Year Bash	Sat 19: Ladies Stableford	Sun 20: St Patrick's Competition	Wed 27: Seniors
Wed 26: Seniors	Sun 20: Ladies Stableford, Brentside AM-AM	Wed 23: Seniors bogey	Mon 29: Royal Wedding Bank Holiday
	Wed 23: Seniors	Sat 26: Ladies Stableford
	Sun 27: St David's Competition	Sun 27: Cremin Final, Ladies Stableford, Brentside

Thanks! Go to our advertisers, Keith Hall (Seniors and various photos), Bill Mulvanny (Brentside), Barrie Barker (Phoenix), Marge Griffin and Tom Murray (photos). If you have any ideas, photos or golfing theses for the newsletter, contact Richard Gray.

TUFFIN & WREN

WISHING ALL BRENT VALLEY MEMBERS AN EXCELLENT GOLFING 2011!

Tuffin & Wren is an independently owned and run firm of Residential Estate Agents specialising in the sale & letting of quality homes in and around Ealing & Hanwell in West London.

Founded in 1989 by the original partners, Richard Tuffin & David Wren, the company has grown considerably since, moving to larger corner premises at the junction of Greenford Avenue & Cuckoo Lane in Hanwell and the prominent corner premises at the junction of Northfield & Altenburg Avenues in Ealing.

Employing a unique, distinctive marketing style that successfully marries the latest in digital technology with a commitment to traditional values such as personal service and attention to detail, our highly motivated sales & lettings teams, headed by the resident partners, can genuinely claim that whether buying, selling, renting or letting you'll be Sold On Our Service.

Ealing

Address:

138 Northfield Avenue, Ealing
London, W13 9SB

Tel: 020 8566 3366

Fax: 020 8579 1715

Hanwell

Address:

72 Greenford Avenue, Hanwell,
London, W7 3QS

Tel: 020 8840 0993

Fax: 020 8579 8419

E-mail: homes@tuffin-wren.co.uk